FLOOR DEBATE

February 11, 2004 LB 559

SENATOR BAKER: We had a bill in committee wanting to grant perpetual--Senator Cudaback's bill, he's shaking his head--perpetual ID cards for those citizens over 70. And we have not done anything with it. It's quite a revenue hit on the state of Nebraska. You are right. It's rather expensive. And if we eliminate that, it's a big revenue loss to the state of Nebraska.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Of course, that person won't be ruining the roads anymore either. Or he could hang on to that driver's license.

SENATOR BAKER: Well,...

SENATOR JANSSEN: That could be an argument there.

SENATOR BAKER: ...in his case, I would suggest hanging on to the driver's license until it expires. And then he's probably going to have to go in. And we'll see what we do with Senator Cudaback's bill in committee yet, but that was a bill we did hear this session to grant those senior citizens, people over 70, a permanent card. And I'm not sure that that's what we ought to do either, just going back...thinking back on the hearing. Then people's addresses changes, and their appearances change, and so on. And to give them a so-called perpetual card, I have some problems with that, too.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Well, at 80 years old, I doubt whether their residence would change that drastically.

SENATOR BAKER: Maybe one nursing home to another, is all I can think of.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Well, if they're there, they probably...

SENATOR BAKER: Or assisted living, something like that.

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...won't need an identification card.

SENATOR BAKER: And I hope to be driving at 80, though, too.
